Get Your Victory "V" At Herald On Monday; They're Free

You can get your Victory "V" at The Herald office on Monday afternoon.

Stickers will be printed for all who wish to place them on their cars. They will be free and that should make the more attractive.

When you place one of these stickers on your car you are marked. The Nazi won't like it. It means you are pulling for a British Victory. The Herald has no Suastika stickers, only the 'V" for Victory for the Allies who are fighting for a way of life we all desire.

Come on and get them. Stick 'em on your car window, on your front doors, in your hat band, just anywhere you please, but do come and get them.

Mrs. F. S. Richardson of Rockdale and her sister were in Cameron Thursday on business. They read the Herald and renewed again for another year. They formerly lived here and always enjoy a return visit. Cameron was glad to see them again.

Failure to Enact Bond Bill Will Cost Milam County $30,000

Failure of the Legislature to enact the Bond Assumption Bill will cost the tax payers of Milam County $30,000 next year, according to the Ft. Worth Star Telegram.

The House of Representatives passed a bill, but the Senate declined to concur in all of its provisions, but passed a bill assuming the bonds and returning the surplus to the Highway Commission.

If the Legislature is convened in extra session which many believe, the bill may be enacted.

The Fort Worth Star Telegram made a survey of Texas counties to ascertain additional taxes to be levied because the Bond Assumption law was not re-enacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart and C. W. Smith attended the W. C. Shipley funeral in Hillsboro.

Olympia Thompson is spending her vacation in Bay Town.

BODY OF JOE PEREZ RECOVERED FROM RIVER

The Body of Joe Perez was recovered late Friday from the waters of Little River near Gause.

Perez, who was 23 years old was working in a near by field with his father and brother. He left the camp and went to the river to get a jug of water and apparently decided to go for a swim. When he did not return for work his father and brother went in search for him. They found his clothes on the bank and they feared he had lost his life.

Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Massengale said the Sheriff's office was notified and the search begun.

A number of people went to the river and after considerable time the body was located about two miles up stream from where Little River runs into the Brazos.

The Mexican had been dead for about 24 hours.

REDS MATCHING NAZI IN BIG BLOODY BATTLE

Optimism swept London Saturday as belief increased that Germany had met her match in the six weeks old war with Russia.

There were no spectacular Russian victories or anything to indicate Germany may lose, but there was the certainty that the German drive has been halted.

The German High Command Saturday said the Russians are counter attacking with such fierceness and vigor that no progress can now be reported. The German machine was bogged down. Rains throughout the great area of the battle has got Hitler stuck in the mud.

The major battles are being waged in world war style with soldiers on foot. Rifle and bayonet fighting is taking a terrible toll on both sides. It is the first time in this war that Germany has made anything like a dangerous sacrifice of men killed.

The Russian Air Force has twice succeeded in stopping Nazi attacks on Moscow.

The picture may change tomorrow but today the Reds are big in the picture of what military men say is the biggest battle in the history of the World.

25 Workers Is Quota For Sewing Room; The Pay Roll $750 Month

Cameron's WPA sewing room has just announced a kuota of 25 workers and the pay roll will be $750 per month.

At the same time it was noted that the Cameron sewing room is the only one in operation in this section of the district.

Miss Lucille A. Mlaylock is the supervisor. The room is sponsored by the City of Cameron and County of Milam.

The room has received the quota of material for July, 1200 yards which has been purchased by the sponsors.

Miss Blaylock who recently became supervisor here, is experienced. She welcomes visitors at any time. "We will be glad to show them any phase of our word," she said.

R. M. Tubbs Submits The Prize Gourd

R. M. Tubbs Friday was the prize winner so far in the Gourd Exposition being staged at the Herald office to encourage the growth of these ancient house hold utilities.

Not only has Mr. Tubbs submitted the prize gourd, he has brought in a "dish rag" gourd. Believe it or not, these gourds have been known to be used for dish rags after the outer hull has been removed. The Herald thinks this should go to Ripley.

The gourd exhibit is educational. The gourd brought in by Mr. Tubbs is in the show window at the Herald It resembles a baseball bat, perhaps the kind Babe Ruth once used to become the king of swat.

The gourd is about 50 inches in length and is worth your time to come and see.

Berlin Is Bombed by Royal Air Force

Berlin was bombed Thursday night and again Friday morning by RAF planes.

The British admit losing 9 bombers in the attack. They said that German air force is showing signs of weakness although resistance has stiffened since the transfer of planes from the Russian front.

The Germans denied that considerable damage had been done to their capital. It was the first raid since June 3rd.

Whether this raid indicated that the promised blistering by Churchill was under way remained to be developed.

Other large and important sections of Germany were devasted by RAF planes.

Midget Press Back In Operation Again

The Midget's automatic Kluege press, out of commission for several days, was back in production again Friday.

B. L. Archer, electrician, had the motor in place early today, after repairs were made and brushes obtained from Dallas. However, on Thursday Mr. Archer went to Waco and there obtained the necessary parts.

The motor, specially made for the Kluege, was checked at Machine Shop and found perfect, so The Midget moves along again.

The publishers are indebted to Mr. Archer and the public for their help and understanding.

Suspended Sentence Meted to Four Who Steal 14 Chickens

Four men who live near Gause were tried in District Court Tuesday for stealing 14 chickens.

The chickens were stolen from John Thompson who identified them. A jury found the men guilty but suspended the sentence thus keeping up the average of appeasement of crime in Milam county.

The men are: Harvey Roper, two years, suspended. Ollie Matthews, 1 year suspended. Russell Matthews, 1 year suspended; Thos. Cartright, 1 year suspended.

A long list of characters witnesses were put on the stand by W. A. (Bill) Morrison, district attorney in the Roper case.

The men were involved in a similar charge in Robertson county, according to Deputy Sheriff, LeRoy Massengale, but will not be brought to trial there, it was said.

The suspended sentence is always good politics. The state gets a conviction and at the same time the man who commits the crime doesn't have to pay. Nobody gets mad at anybody and crime has received a slap on the wrist.

Recently a jury in district court gave a negro a suspended sentence for kidnapping a baby which he abandoned at night in the woods.

Another case of kidnapping resulted in a 10 dollar fine.

W. A. BEAL BRINGS SQUASH THAT LOOK LIKE GOURD. SAYS ITS HITLER WEAPON

W. A. Beal brought a squash to The Herald office Saturday.

It resembles somewhat the gourds on display. He says it's a Hitler weapon. It looks lige a baby ahgator. He wants to save the seed so the variety can be planted locally.

Mr. Beal has materially helped the exhibit. The Herald wants to get more of these things during the next few weeks, especially gourds.

Many people have already been in to see the gourds. Other displays are expected soon.

U. S. MAY BE HAPPY OVER TURN OF EVENTS

Japan today formally apologised to the United States for having bombed and damaged an American gunboat in the waters of Shanghai.

It was said in Washington that the government might not accept the Japanese excuse that the bombing was accidental. However the apology which was delivered in haste may gratify the American government. It was believed the United States may be looking for an opportunity to continue apeasement in the Far East.

The Daily Herald heard that the Japs are planning an attack on Siberia. This is discounted because the Japs apparently would not run the risk of American action while involved with Russia.

Little could be said of the battle between Russia and Germany. Neither side conceded anything. It was a matter about which not even close observers could be certain.

The Russians were attacking around Leningrad and that was cited as proof the Russians are in no wise in fear of the city's fall.

Harry Hopkins, personal representative of the President is now in Moscow. He experienced his first air raid in the Soviet capital. He expressed surprise at the small damage done by the German planes.

On the American front all was quiet. There was no indication of any impending action although President Roosevelt confered for two hours late Wednesday with Admiral Stark, chief of naval operations and Secretary Welles.

The Daily Herald heard that a new government may be formed in Vichy by influences oposed to co-operation with the Axis. This was unconfirmed. Such a move would have far reaching consequences.

Milam Election Is Called for August 30

Austin, July 29.—A traditional indication of an impending special session of the legislature came today when Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel called an election in Milam county on August 30, to choose a successor to Rep Reese Turner of Cameron, resigned.

Unless a special session is contemplated, governors seldom call special elections after the regular legislative session adjourns. However, O'Daniel will become U. S. Senator next month, which would leave the decision concerning a special session to Coke R. Stevenson, now lieutenant governor

JAPAN OFFICIALLY IS INDO CHINA MASTER

Mystery shrouded the battle on the 1800 mile front Between Red Russian and Nazi Germany.

The Reds say it is another Verdun. The Germans said Monday a sensational announcement is about to be made regarding the tide of battle around Smolinsk.

The Germans had already announced the capture of Smolinsk.

The Russian radio report said that fighting had reached the stalmate and that the Nazi drive is losing steam fast. There was nothing to indicate the Germans were progressing on the blitzkreig scale.

Russia has a modern army. France had a 1914 army. The British are doing nothing. They will remain on the Island and wait for Hitler.

The United States after the first flurry over the expansion of the Japs had apparently accepted the inevitable. Government officials in Washington were settling back in their seats, their prestige battered again but their country safe from war.

It was believed the American Government might dispatch a note to Japan stating that "further agression might put additional strain on Japanese-American relations." In other words if the Japs should take the Indies and other territories the Washington government would feel at liberty to restate the histic policy of America against agression. That would worry Japan and Germany greatly.

Exactly the American government has done nothing. It appeared that no crisis could be found. The American people were beginning to accept the defeat. "We won't be swerved from our course to aid Britain. We won't fall into the Hitler trap of getting involved in the far east."

The Daily Herald predicts that Japan will continue to get America oil and all other materials that can be spared from the employment program in the United States.

More Knitters Are Needed For Red Cross Quota Here

Knitters for the Red Cross are called for again by those in charge of producting the quota of garments for Cameron.

Mrs. Stanley Swift said the new quota has arrived but the old quota has not yet been completed.

There is an urgent need for volunteer knitters. The women of Cameron and surrounding territory have a very definite responsibility. It is largely their problem, for after all only the women know how to knit.

The boys are in the army doing their share. The men are buying Defense Bonds and Securities, the scouts are collecting aluminum. The women have always done their share of the nations defense efforts. It is necessary that more women volunteer for this work.

The yarn can be had at the Winfield store in Cameron.

JIM H. CRAWFORD BRINGS IN DIPPER GOURD; SAYS HE HAS THIRTEEN MORE

Jim H. Crawford who lives in Batte town was in early Monday afternoon with a choice dipper gourd, the first of its kind from the current crop to be brought in.

Mr. Crawford says he has two two hills and that there are 13, other fine gourds on the vines.

The gourd is yet very green. They should not be pulled so early because they will not mature and become useful unless the huli has had full growth and development.

Mr. Crawford has been watching the gourd displays here and has appreciated the effort of The Herald to stimulate interest in gourd production.

HAWAIIAN TROOPS ARE ALSO READY TODAY

Uncle Sam doubled up his fists in the Orient Saturday as President Roosevelt ordered all armed forces of the United States now in the Phillipine Islands on a war footing and made ready for instant action.

At the same time the Daily Herald heard that some 400,000 troops in Hawaii were put on a war footing.

For many months the United States has been sending men to Hawaii and the largest concentration of troops in the history of the country in peace time was reported months ago.

The Daily Herald heard also that orders, the nature of which were not disclosed, had been issued to the navy.

Whether Roosevelt intends to meet force with force in the far east and thus engage Japan in war, was not disclosed. There was nothing to indicate this will be done but considerable significance was attached to the orders sent to the far east forces.

It is estimated that America now has some hundred thousand soldiers in the Phillipine Islands and a great concentration of naval power.

Japan has announced her intention of occupying naval and air bases in French Indo China which this government has said constitutes a threat to American security.

If America's security is threatened and nothing is done about it there would be no reason to trust the leadership now in power. When and where these threats will be resisted remained a mystery.

Japan acted promptly to freeze assets of the United States in the Japanese empire. The assets of Great Britain were also frozen by the Japs and Britain retaliated with the abrogation of all trade treaties with Japan.

Thus the Japs were squarely on their own resources. The raw material and oil Japan has been getting from America, so essential to her war machine are now cut off.

Sgt. Eichenhorst Weds Mary Doucet In Del Rio; Ordered to Phillipines and May Get Commission; Was Football Star and Yoe High School Graduate

The marriage of Miss Mary Marguerite Doucet, daughter of Mrs. J. E. Turk of Del Rio, to Staff Sgt. Walter E Eichenhorst, son of F. H. Eichenhorst of this city, was solemnized at 5 o'clock on Wednesday evening June 18th at the Methodist Church in Del Rio with Rev. R. F. Curl oficiating. Mrs. Curl, who formerly taught school here and was a former teacher of the groom, was present also.

The bride wore a sport dress of tan and brown crepe. Her accessories were tan and white and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

The maid of honor, Miss Ruth Doucet, a sister of the bride wore a blue lace dress with lily of the valley corsage. She was accompanied by a friend of the birde and groom Sgt. Benny Thornton of Ft. Clark.

The bride graduated from Del Rio High School and was very popular in her school organizations and social activities.

Sgt. Eichenhorst was formerly a resident of this city and a graduate of Yoe High. He was an active player on the Yoemen team.

After his graduation in the summer of 1935, he entered the U. S. Army and was stationed at Ft. Clark and has been there for almost 6 years. He first served in the 1st. Cavalry Brigade, but was later transferred to the D. E. M. L. Division.

While at Ft. Clark he made rapid progress in his ratings for he never gave up his studies nor neglected his duties in any way. He went to night school and each year for 4 years was a star football player there. They played Sul Ross at Alpine and many others and in 1937 he was awarded a troop ring and belt for being one of the best players on the team. That year they became post champions.

At present he is a Staff Sergeant, but just recently has taken 3 exams for 2nd. Lieutenant and made excellent in all three. However, the sudden change in the shifting of army officers has taken him to the Philipine Islands to act as Stenographer for Major General George Grunert, commandant of the army's Philipine Department at Manila. Therefore, he has not been able to go before the board and obtain his commission as a 2nd Lieutenant.

Sgt. Eickenhorst is a brother of Mrs. Paley Wenck formerly of this city, but who now resides in Hearne.

SHOWER

A linen and crystal shower was given for Miss Catherine Mode, bride-elect of Lt. John Calvin Haygood, on Thursday night at the home of Theresa Manning by Billie Marek, Velma Reese and Theresa Manning.

A patriotic theme was carried out in decorations. The center pieces in the table where small airplanes and plate favors were flags. The flowers used were crepe myrtle, Shrimp and petunias.

EXPECTS INVASION OF ENGLAND SEPTEMBER 1

Winston Churchill, British Prime Minister, Tuesday said that the United States is moving rapidly toward participation in the European war.

This statement was received with considerable surprise in this country and may have some effect on the Isolationists fight in Congress.

Mr. Churchill said it is foolish to expect the United States and Russia to win the war for England, "That," he said, "is our job alone." He said the British are expecting an invasion of the British Isles by September 1st, and here the Germans will win or loose the war.

Mr. Churchill did not exptain how he arrived at the conclusion that the United States will shortly be in the war but he made the statement without comment except to say that it is England's job to wiln for England.

The statement was credited with some authority because of the close collaboration between the United States and England. Congress was making every effort to retain the draftees and guardsmen in the service for the emergency and it was said Tuesday that the Senate would reach a vote on the measure not later than Saturday.

Only 14 members of the Senate are believed to oppose the bill and they admitted Tuesday that the fight is hopeless.

Mr. Churchill praised the Russians for their gallant fight against Germany but did not indicate that he was hopeful for the success of the Red Army. In fact, his statement regarding the invasion in September did indicate he does not believe the Russians can succeed. If the Germans should lose in Russia they would not be able to invade England.

Walter Wallace Is Gourd Expert; Gets Four New Varieties

One is the Penguin, a small gourd resembling the famous stuffed shirt birds of the Antartic.

One of the most interesting gourds is the so called pumpkin shape. This gourd has no neck comparable to other gourds. It has been known to grow to great size and be used for hampers and small grain bins. Its utility approaches the famous American dipper gourd and one of the specimen is the dipper gourd. Another is the Goose gourd, its shape resembling the goose. They have been worked into ornamental geese by placing a bill in the large end neck.

Previously Mr. Wallace brought to the Herald the finest specimen of dipper gourd ever seen in this section.

This gourd together with another from last year's crop belonging to the publisher was cut by Mr. Wallace who is an expert in preparing gourds for household use.

The gourd display increases, although the publisher wishes that the best specimen be kept on the vines until they are fully mature.

RUSSIAN POSITION IS NOW MORE FAVORABLE

Almost everywhere the German drive had been stopped, even the seriously threatened capital of the Eukraine, ancient Kiev, was no nearer capture than Thursday.

Moscow has been bombed again. The Germans admited that the war is slowing down. Tremendous Russian attacks and stubborn defense has proven the most severe test the Germans have been put to since the bowling over of 13 nations.

In London Anthony Eden denounced Japan. The British government said any measure the United States wishes to take will be backed up to the fullest by both England and Australia.

Defrauds Wholesale House; Faces Prison

James F. Breeding, unique criminal, was taken to Corpus Christi by Deputy Sheriff Carl Black over the week end, there to face charges of swindling.

Breeding made a confession to Cameron officers that he swindled the McLane Company, wholesalers, out of $75 worth of cigarettes.

Breeding is wanted in many states and in a number of Texas counties on the same charge. Deputy Sheriff LeRoy Massengale has Breeding's record which is a long story of crime.

Although Breeding would not sign the confession after he made it, he said he telephoned the Wholesale House from Rosebud about the cigarettes and said he would send a check for the merchandise. He drove to Cameron, parked his car in front of Cheeves Brothers Store.

A negro boy came along the street and Breeding called the negro to the car, gave him the check and his car and told him to go to the Wholesale House and get the cigarettes. He stood on the court house lawn and watched the negro and as he drove away from the McLane Company, Breeding took the car, gave the negro $1.50 and escaed with the merchandise

Breeding is wanted on this same charge in many places over the United States.

FINAL WARNING

This is the last time I will warn those who interfere with firemen. Many notices have been given. Some continue to violate the law. I will now enforce it without regard to who may be found guilty.

When a fire alarm sounds those driving cars are required under the law to go to the curb and stop. Instead some, too many, have been racing to fires. They even beat the fire truck to the fire and this week on one occassion blocked the streets, making it most difficult for the firemen to operate.

This will never happen again if I can prevent it and anyone who races to a fire in violation of this law, will be arrested. There will be no more notices, only action.

GENE SMITH,
City Marshal.

Gives Roaster To Cook Hitler's Goose In Aluminum Drive

J. B. White, Editor
Cameron Herald,
Cameron, Texas.
Dear Sir:

The Aluminum Drive in the county is getting well under way and much favorable reaction is found. In Rockdale on Thursday, July 24, the Rev. Dan F. Bounds placed in the Aluminum collection pen his complete roasting pan, top and bottom, all neatly tied together. On the outside of this large roasting pan was pasted the following note.

"This has cooked my turkeys, and now, it is hoped it will cook Hitler's goose.

Very sincerely,
DAN BOUNDS,
Rockdale, Texas."

We all join with Brother Bounds in his hopes and the people of the county are responding very generously to this worthwhile effort. I pass this on to you for whatever it may be worth.

Yours truly,
EMORY B. CAMP.

Mrs. Yager Lends Gourds to Exhibit

Mrs. E. B. Yager of Maysifeld has made a contribution to the success of the gourd display at the Herald office.

Mrs. Yager brought in three on Thursday, two of them the Spanish Water gourds and most unusual of all the gourds produced in this state. The other gourd she brought in is the same type as that produced by R. M. Tubbs who calls them "dish rag" gourds.

The gourd is from last year's crop and has been painted. They are highly ornamental when painted. One of the gourds, a small Spanish water gourd is also painted. Mrs. Yager has demonstrated that gourds may be useful as well as ornamental.

Seed frm the Spanish water gourds will be distributed if possible to obtain, that others may produce this unique variety.

Mrs. Vernon McIntyre and daughter, Jeanette are visiting relatives here.

100 MILLION FROM GOURD

HAITI KING FOUND WAY TO PROSPERITY

Christophe, African slave, put ashore on Haiti by the slave traders before the turn of the 18th Century, became fabulous with wealth and accumulated one hundred million dollars in gold because the island produces gourds.

J. E. Johnson, local architect, who spent 6 years in the Indies of the Western Hemisphere, wanted to encourage the gourd display at the Herald plant, told one of the most amazing stories of the vast store of experiences he has laid away from years spent in the West Indies.

This story concerns gourds and Christophe who became King of Haiti. On his desk, as Mr. Johnson was interviewed, lay a volume written about Christophe by Vandercook traveler and writer.

Christophe was taken by slave traders to the French Island of Haiti as a boy. He became King in 1812. The island was owned by France. It is now and has been independent since the bloody massacree of the white population in the uprising of 1804.

Dessarlini was the first King. Christophe was a general in the army of Dessarlini and was a great military leader. He whipped Napoleon Bonaparte and France abandoned the island because it was not worth the sacrifice to hold.

Haiti was bankrupt. Christophe sent letters to the United States and to the European power offering opportunities for profitable trade. Haiti had no currency system, so he created one. After the destruction of the plantations and the abolition of slavery, the black cultivators of Haiti had grown more and more dependent on wild produce. Their muts were made of mud and sticks and palm leaves. Food grew wild or with little urging. For utensils, bowls, spoons, and bottles, the blacks made use of the fruit of the gourd vine, dried in the sun, scraped clean of seeds, and then cut into the requisite shapes. If there was such thing as an irreplaceable necessity in the careless life of the peasants, it was the gourd, Christophe mused. Gourds were useful, but they soon wore out.

Chief Christophe issued an arbitrary act which declared every green gourd in northren Haiti the property of the state. A new crop was just ripening and soliers were sent to every commune to collect it. The peasants made no objection. Christophe was their master now and whatever he did was right.

Mr. Johnson went to the island in 1916 a government architect. He returned in 1922. He has written a great deal about the West Indies.

Christophe, though a king, could neither read or write. The only thing he ever wrote was "Henry The First," which was his title as ruler of the Island. He became rich and although left an amazing record of achievement, the prosperity and the life of a king were too much for the African slave boy. It drove him mad.

He built a church, one of the finest in the world. He also built a tomb for his body, much the same as the Pharos did in Egypt. One day they found Christophe dead. He had commited suicide, using a silver bullet which he fired into his brain. He had slain himself in his tomb.

During his reign he had amassed a fortune of One Hundred Million Dollars in gold and sixty million of this was deposited in the banks of France, the other Forty Million buried in the soil of Haiti.

This all from gourds produced in Haiti, confiscated, used to buy coffee from the natives which in turn was sold for gold to Europe and America.

Gourds in Haiti are the chief source from which household implements are made. They are so vital in the life of the Haitians they have always been their chief sourse of wealth.

Mr. Johnson described the musical instruments made from gourds. They are cut so as to produce notes when struck by hand. Mr. Johnson says the music is so weirdly beautiful it has been the marvel of artists the world over.

The famous Calabash gourd is used for making pipes and is as rare and valuable as the finest briars of Ireland and England.

On display at the Herald is a small gourd with a wood handle inserted after pebbles were placed in the gourd. This was used by natives in their bands. Americans have seen their counterpart in modern jazz bands. This one is carved. Their sounds were controlled by the size of pebbles, some having coarse sand.

The musical instrument is just as made by the natives. Mr. Johnson is one of few white men ever to witness the Vodoo Dance and has a Voo Doo drum fashioned from a tree trunk and hundreds of years old.

On display also are two pieces of currency from Haiti. They bear the picture of Dessarlini, first King of the Republic of Haiti. Instead of one dollar or two dollars, they are inscribed "two gourds" and "one gourde." A silver piece the size of an American dollar is "One Gourde." It has the coat of Arms of Haiti's king Dessarilini.
an American dollar is "One Gourde." It has the coat of Arms of Haiti's king Dessarlini

The coin has $2.10 worth of silver in it. The gourd as applied to Haitian money represented a 20c value, thus five gourds made a dollar. There has been no Haitian coinage since 1882.

It was Dessarlini who directed the uprising in 1804 but Christophe was responsible for Haitian glory and golden age made possible because the gourd was valuable in the life of her people.

FINAL WARNING

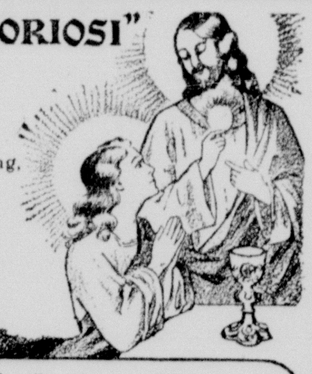
This is the last time I will warn those who interfere with firemen. Many notices have been given. Some continue to violate the law. I will now enforce it without regard to who may be found guilty.

When a fire alarm sounds those driving cars are required under the law to go to the curb and stop. Instead some, too many, have been racing to fires. They even beat the fire truck to the fire and this week on one occassion blocked the streets, making it most difficult for the firemen to operate.

This will never happen again if I can prevent it and anyone who races to a fire in violation of this law, will be arrested. There will be no more notices, only action.

GENE SMITH,
City Marshal.

"PANGE LINGUA GLORIOSI"



Now, my tongue the mystery telling
Of the glorious Body sing
And the Blood, all price excelling
Which the Gentiles' Lord and King,
Once on earth amongst us dwelling
Shed for this world's ransoming.

Written by St. Thomas Aquinas for the office of Corpus Christi in 1263, this, the greatest of all Communion hymns, is modelled on the Pange Lingua of Fortunatus. The translation is based on the versions of Caswall and Neale.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 3.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing." (Zephaniah 3:17.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible. "Whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him" (I John 2:5.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. If divine Love is becoming nearer, dearer and more real to us, matter is then submitting to Spirit" (page 239.)

UNCLE SAM BLASTED AGAIN IN FAR EAST

Japanese bombing planes have attacked and badly damaged an American gunboat, presumably in the waters of the river at Shanghai.

The bombing caused some apprehension in Washington lest the Japs had begun a war on America. After having defied the United States the Japs were believed determined to force a fight.

There were no explanations over the bombing. More than two years ago the gunboat, Panay was sunk by Japanese bombs. They apologised and paid for the boat.

A vigorous protest may be sent over this newest of outrages against the American navy

"I'm Patriotic," Is Reply of Frisby; Says He's Misunderstood

A. J. Frisby said Wednesday he's patriotic and would fight for this country and that his remarks in which he refered to the aluminum pen on the court house lawn as a junk heap, was misunderstood.

He said he does not indorse America's aid to a pagan nation like Russia. He called the Reds, "Ungodly," and thinks America should have no part in aiding Russia. 'I think more of Hitler than I do Stalin," he said

Mr Frisby says his remarks at Buckholts were misunderstood. "There had been some complaint about my using the court house lawn. They said the grass was trampled. They have erected a junk heap on the lawn because that stuff can be sold for junk," said he.

Mr. Frisby is very religious and has deep convictions over questions of faith. His church is the Full Gospel Tabernacle and believes in a literal interpretation of scriptures.

He said his remarks at Buckholts had been misinterpreted by the Herald's correspondent in the case and that some might think him unpatriotic.
